Don't forget that there's also the avatar shop, which comes with free stuff, as well. All you need to do is to search the avatar shop for the word "free". Then, look for featured items. You have plenty of stuff to get, from new avatars, to emotes and accessories. If you want to redeem them, sign in to your account, then click on the item you want, then click the "Get" button, which will bring up a prompt. Then, click on "Get Now" in order to add that item to your account.

It is completely free to create a Roblox account and start playing. The majority of the games on the platform are also free to play so it is perfectly feasible to have a good time on Roblox without spending a penny. You can play Roblox on pretty much any device, either through a web browser or the free dedicated Roblox app.

While it's always an option to directly purchase Robux from the in-game store with real money, one can also create custom items and even host their own games to bring in the big bucks. It takes some effort, but it's a great option for players wanting a little more premium currency.

Roblox's 20 million and counting experiences in existence today generally share a common LEGO block-esque aesthetic redolent of sandbox creation titles such as Minecraft and Trove. Roblox can be free to play, paid, or freemium. Developers receive approximately 70 percent of the "Robux" – the platform's own mini-currency – spent inside their experiences. As of 2020, the company has launched a scheme whereby developers receive engagement-based payouts according to how much time users of Roblox's subscription service have spent inside their experiences.

Bronstein says virtual fashion is "huge" within the Roblox community. "People can also be whoever they want to be on the platform, and this authenticity is an important part of their self-expression, be it in real life or in the Metaverse." He points to the recent Gucci Garden event, which saw a virtual bag eventually sell for around $4,115. Its physical counterpart costs $3,400. The bag cannot be transferred out of Roblox, suggesting that some users place primacy on how their avatars look over being able to flaunt these items in the physical world. Plenty of brands have started selling legally licensed digital product replicas, including Nike Air Max trainers and NFL merchandise.

The fact it has managed to stay so popular for so long really emphasises how exciting and enticing it is.

But the "open Metaverse" Decentraland gestures towards is still very far away. Bartle, the Essex academic, says that today most developers are building up discrete and proprietary "walled garden" virtual worlds. "You can't move between them, or take what you've got from one world into another," he says.
